

standards-aligned writing units

created by teachers for teachers

“To build a foundation for college and career readiness, students need to learn to use writing as a way of offering and supporting opinions, demonstrating understanding of the subjects they are studying, and conveying real and imagined experiences and events....” (CCSS p. 18)

At the request of teachers and district leaders, Reach Associates has created six standards-based writing units for each grade level (K – 5).

6 writing units:

- Launching/Personal Narrative (K-5) or Launching Narrative Point of View (grades 4 and 5)
- Opinion (K-5)
- Informational (K-5)
- Research (K-5)
- Opinion Using Text-Based Evidence (grades 2-5) and How-To (K and 1st grade)
- Personal Narrative (K-2), Fiction (3rd grade), Historical Fiction (4th grade), Memoir (5th grade)

Each unit includes:

- a listing of targeted grade level standards
- an overview of the unit, including the scope and sequence of standards-based teaching points
- teacher-friendly daily lessons plans with tiered levels of suggested instructional language
- teacher, student and classroom resources for daily instruction (e.g. exemplar mentor texts, anchor charts, student guided practice task protocols)

Pricing:

- Units may be purchased individually at $18.00 per teacher.
- Fee per unit will be adjusted when wrap-around professional development provided by Reach Associates is included.
